Riverdale Nature Preservancy Annual Meeting

Just in time for spring, please come participate in a discussion on non-toxic gardening and housekeeping.

People - Pets - Environment How to keep a non-toxic home

Dr. Maya Shetreat-Klein, integrative pediatric neurologist, will share fascinating research on the effects of pesticides, herbicides, and cleaning chemicals on developing children and pets, and suggest cleaning tips that will save money and your health.

Jack DePietro, organic gardener, will share insights on the ecosystem in the garden and how to nourish it, as well as ways to communicate with your landscaper about a healthy lawn and plantings.

Ken Almstead, certified arborist and organic land care professional, will emphasize organic methods of caring for trees and shrubs, from planting to protection and preservation.

Thursday, April 3, 2014
7:30 p.m. - 9:00 p.m.

Riverdale Neighborhood House
5521 Mosholu Avenue, first floor
